

I want to extend my congratulations to Theodore Yuan for a great effort in the National Spelling Bee in Washington. Theodore, just 12 years old, is from Lincolnshire and attends Daniel Wright Junior High School. He made his way through the 9th round and finished in the top 15, spelling words like dactyloscopy, poliorcetics and argillaceous. We are all proud of his accomplishment.